

Bernadette Giam (née Wong) 王诗佳

- Community volunteer of over ten years, dedicated to uplifting women, youth and seniors.
- Champions women empowerment through community initiatives targeted at supporting young working women. She led the PAP Women's Wing inaugural 'All Things Nice' initiative in collaboration with several PAP branches, empowering 300 young women with pre-loved corporate attire and valuable programming support from women-led SMEs. She also served on the Women's Register of the Singapore Council of Women's Organisations (SCWO) from 2016 to 2022, connecting young women with female industry leaders to expand their professional networks.
- Advocates for every child to have a good start. She helmed a pioneering preschool outreach across Pasir-Ris Punggol GRC, bringing together local preschools to foster community and intergenerational bonding.
- In supporting youths and helping them realise their potential, she has served as a member of the Nanyang Polytechnic (NYP) Business Management Advisory Committee since 2016, as well as the Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus (CHIJ) Alumni Association. She is also an Executive Committee Member of the Singapore Business Federation (SBF)'s Young Business Leaders Network (YBLN), where she hopes to strengthen an ecosystem of support for young business leaders and encourage innovation in the industry.
- She is presently a Director at Creative Eateries, a local food and beverage SME, where she works in Corporate Planning, managing strategic initiatives and business development. Since 2016, she has also served on the Executive Committee of the Association of Catering Professionals Singapore (ACAPS).
