

Daniel Liu Keyuan 刘克元

- Volunteer at Nee Soon GRC since 2014. As a Party activist, he served as the Assistant Branch Secretary for Nee Soon East from 2018 to 2022. He is also a member of the PAP Mental Health Group.
- Born with albinism, his experiences fuel his commitment to the well-being of Singaporeans who feel that their aspirations for success are unattainable or disconnected from the nation's economic growth.
- Dedicated to building community and connecting generations, he has organised numerous events and initiatives to strengthen ties within the Nee Soon community through excursions, workshops, and various activities.
- Managing Director at MORROW, an urban planning and architecture firm, where he established the firm's policy advisory and analytics division to assist cities and their leaders in creating resilient, adaptive, and liveable environments.
- Passionate about enhancing urban life, particularly for individuals living in informal settlements. He serves as a consultant for cities in ASEAN and beyond and has spoken on this issue at global forums, including the Bloomberg New Economy Forum and events organised by the World Economic Forum.
